

Supplementary file to ‘High aspect in English be going to construction’

Word count: 762

Daniel Duncan
Newcastle University
daniel.duncan@ncl.ac.uk

1 Overview

This supplementary file provides the test sentences used for data analysis in the experiments reported in ‘High aspect in the English be going to construction: Syntactic evidence’. Section 2 contains the sentences used in Experiment 1, while Section 3 contains the sentences used in Experiment 2.

2 Experiment 1 sentences

- (1) Emma might be gonna eat dinner.
- (2) I should be gonna make breakfast.
- (3) I should be gonna clean my bedroom.
- (4) Alex might be gonna feed the cat.
- (5) Mia could be gonna beat this level.
- (6) I could be gonna fix the lawnmower.
- (7) Mark had been gonna learn Spanish, but the class was canceled.
- (8) I had been gonna bake a cake, but I'm out of flour.
- (9) Abby had been gonna win at Monopoly when the cat ruined the board.
- (10) I had been gonna do my homework until it started snowing.
- (11) Ethan had been gonna paint the fence, but John volunteered to.
- (12) I had been gonna fold the laundry, but it's still damp.
- (13) I'm gonna plant a garden.
- (14) Ava is gonna play video games.
- (15) Madison is gonna write an email.
- (16) Michael is gonna watch TV.
- (17) I'm gonna build a model train set.
- (18) I'm gonna hire five employees.
- (19) Maisie might be about to leave the party.
- (20) I should be about to board the train, but I lost my ticket.
- (21) The politicians should be about to vote on the bill.
- (22) I might be about to learn Jessie's secret.
- (23) I could be about to lose this chess match.

- (24) The event could be about to end.
- (25) Sam had been about to buy a house when she lost her job.
- (26) I had been about to bake a pie when I realized we had no sugar.
- (27) The workers had been about to unionize when their boss found out.
- (28) Max had been about to tell his story when the disturbance happened.
- (29) I had been about to ask where you were when you walked in the room.
- (30) I had been about to return home when you called me.
- (31) I'm about to make pancakes.
- (32) I'm about to go jogging.
- (33) I'm about to write a letter to the editor.
- (34) My daughter is about to arrive in town.
- (35) My favorite show is about to start.
- (36) Jim is about to miss his flight.

3 Experiment 2 sentences

- (1) Isla might be going to eat dinner.
- (2) Frank should be going to make breakfast.
- (3) I should be going to clean my bedroom.
- (4) I might be going to feed the cat.
- (5) I could be going to beat this level.
- (6) Sophie could be going to fix the lawnmower.
- (7) Isabel had been going to learn Spanish, but the class was canceled.
- (8) I had been going to bake a cake, but I'm out of flour.
- (9) Luke had been going to win at Monopoly when the cat ruined the board.
- (10) I had been going to do my homework until it started snowing.
- (11) I had been going to paint the fence, but John volunteered to.
- (12) Isaac had been going to fold the laundry, but it's still damp.
- (13) Liam is going to plant a garden.
- (14) I'm going to play video games.
- (15) I'm going to write an email.
- (16) I'm going to watch TV.
- (17) Charlotte is going to build a model train set.
- (18) Violet's company is going to hire five employees.
- (19) I should be going to the bank.
- (20) I might be going to New York.
- (21) Bailey could be going downtown.
- (22) Morgan should be going to work.
- (23) Jonah might be going to a friend's house.
- (24) I could be going to a castle.
- (25) I had been going to the bookstore when you called.
- (26) I had been going to the ice cream shop when I heard it closed.
- (27) Marcus had been going to his aunt's lakehouse when the storm hit.
- (28) I had been going to Miami when the airline lost my luggage.
- (29) Andrea had been going to the baseball game when she found out there were no tickets left.
- (30) Devon had been going to the campsite when he ran out of gas.

- (31) I'm going to the grocery store.
- (32) I'm going to my grandmother's house.
- (33) Henry is going to Los Angeles.
- (34) I'm going to my favorite restaurant.
- (35) Amelia is going to a music festival.
- (36) Elizabeth is going to the beach.